ABOUT THE FACULTY

Established six decades ago under the aegis of Sharof Rashidov Samarkand State University, the Faculty of History currently accommodates 800 students. The academic staff comprises 56 scholars, including 9 Doctors of Science/Professors, 35 Candidates of Science/Associate Professors, and 12 Senior Lecturers. The Faculty is dedicated to the scholarly preparation of specialists in the disciplines of History, Archaeology, Archival Studies, and Museology.

OUR GOALS

Faculty is committed to cultivating highly competent and competitive graduates in the domains of History, Archaeology, Archival Science, and Museum Studies, who meet contemporary professional standards.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION

The curriculum integrates theoretical foundations with practical skill development through engagement with academic lyceums, vocational colleges, archival repositories, museums, and historical sites. Students undertake research endeavors and participate in archaeological fieldwork. Opportunities for advanced learning and professional development are facilitated through international internships in nations such as Germany, Italy, Japan, the People's Republic of China, Turkey, the Russian Federation, and Kazakhstan.

INTERSHIP

The Faculty has cultivated strategic partnerships with esteemed international universities. Currently, over 100 academically distinguished students are pursuing Master's and Doctoral degrees under grant funding. Robust collaborative relationships have been established with leading higher education institutions in countries including Japan (Nagoya University), the Republic of Korea (Yeungnam University), the Russian Federation (Russian State University for the Humanities), the Federal Republic of Germany (University of Göttingen, University of Cologne), the Republic of Turkey (Ankara Hacı Bayram Veli University, Boğaziçi University), and the Republic of Kazakhstan (Ahmet Yesevi University, among others).

WHY YOU SHOULD CHOOSE SAMARKAND STATE UNIVERSITY

Graduates of the Faculty are well-prepared for careers as educators in secondary schools, academic lyceums, and vocational colleges, as well as researchers within research institutions, archives, and museums. Over the past 60 years, the Faculty has produced in excess of 16,000 highly qualified professionals. Choosing our Faculty represents a decisive step toward a promising future and a distinguished career. We welcome prospective scholars to join our academic community.
