

SDG 10.6.7

Does your university as a body provide accessible facilities for people with disabilities?'

Samarkand State University provides full-fledged access to all necessary facilities to disabled students, employees and visitors.

University pledges to provide an inclusive learning environment and to support the cognitive, emotional and creative development of students with special needs. Samarkand State University ensures that reasonable efforts are made to accommodate students with special needs such that their program learning objectives are met. Special Needs Services are provided equally through programs and services.

University is committed to share normal life with disabled persons without any discrimination in all spheres of life.

In order to provide better living conditions, University and its people encourage disabled people for better life at work places and residential areas in campus. On December 02, 2021, International Day with people having Disabilities was celebrated. During the event, disabled students have participated and discussed learning and staying environment in the Samarkand State University. They shared their views and experiences about university. Gifts were distributed to praise them and felling sense of equality and fraternity. This program was organized by the Advisory Council on Women's Issues of the Faculty of Philology of Samarkand State University.
