

16.2.5

Does your university as a body have a publication of the university's principles and commitments on organized crime, corruption & bribery?

Samarkand State University accomplishes work towards the principles and commitments of combating all types of crime including corruption and bribery. The university is committed to following the legislation, rules and regulations of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Our students, staff and teachers are bound to the governance rules of Uzbekistan. Ministry of the Justice Republic of Uzbekistan which modifies acts and rules from time to time as per need in accordance with the decree of the President of Uzbekistan. These laws and regulations aim to achieve an honest, efficient government (campus) with characteristics of being clean, open, efficient and of high quality. University has its own administrative divisions and authorities to implement the rules and regulations in a transparent and efficient way.

Web-link:

<https://www.minjust.uz/en/>

<https://www.unodc.org/centralasia/en/news/unodc-supports-criminal-justice-reforms-in-uzbekistan.html>