

16.3.1

Does your university as a body provide specific expert advice to local, regional or national government (e.g. through policy guidance, participation in committees, and provision of evidence)?

Samarkand State University's Rector, Prof. R. I. Khalmuradov is also senator of Uzbekistan. He has participated in the SCO summit and expressed his views on unemployment and employability. This indicates that Samarkand State University is proactively involved in working with local, regional and national governments.

Many other professors and teachers are participating in different local, regional and national government activities in order to provide them consultations and technical support.
