

5.3.1

Does your university as a body systematically measure/track women's application rate and acceptance or entry rate?

Samarkand State University tracks women's applications in different courses to improve women's attendance in different courses. For 2021, a Total of 9817 applications was received for admission in different courses at the bachelor, masters and PhD level. Out of that total 1529 women were admitted to different courses.

University encourages the participation of women in all courses equivalent to male students without any discrimination. It is also notified that the government of Uzbekistan and Samarkand State University are committed to attracting more women to education.

