8.2 Employment Practice

8.2.1

Does your university as a body pay all staff and faculty at least the living wage, defined as the local living wage (if government defines this) or the local poverty indicator for a family of four (expressed as an hourly wage)?

A standard amount of salary is being paid to all its employees that cover living costs for housing, utilities, food, health needs clothing and transport. Through paying employees a standard living wages, it would turn into positive aspects for the university. Samarkand State University pays a range of basic salary as per designations and work profiles as per given data.
