AWARDEES' SHARING

Ginenus Fekadu Mekonen : "Hong Kong universities are highly ranked globally. Additionally, the professors are of high quality. Most PhD studies in Hong Kong are three years... So it increases my speed of finishing my study."

Annisa Hanifa Dean Dwi : "Hong Kong is very diverse, culture-wise and landscape-wise...I also really like that I can be in the city centre and still be very close to a nature walk, a hike or the beach with very easily accessible transportation."

Liem Albert : "The research opportunities here are really abundant, so it really enhances my learning experience and also increases the standards of my research."

Marwin Keeratibunharn : "Not only do they have really great food like Hong Kong dim sum, Hong Kong cha chaan teng, but they also have a diversity of different cuisines...Hong Kong has unique advantages as an international financial centre. So I think, especially someone who wants to work in the financial industry, starting my career here in Hong Kong is definitely one of the best opportunities I can find."

Lucas Lim Her Yun : "(Hong Kong) is an amazing place to be with a lot of career opportunities...I think there's a lot of things that Hong Kong does really well, especially just being efficient and convenient."

Roman Lashin : "I really enjoy museums in Hong Kong... You can see a lot of contemporary art, a lot of history of Hong Kong...(and) the history of China, like 5,000 years of civilization just packed into this museum building."

Arsenii Portniagin : "(Hong Kong is) the place where you can meet each and everyone, people from many nationalities...They can exchange ideas."
